A LIST OF THE GOVERNORS AND COMMANDERS-IN-CHIEF

OF NEW-HAMPSHIRE, FROM ITS FIRST SETTLEMENT.

[New-Hampshire was first settled in 1628, by Edward and William Hilton, brothers, from London, and David Thompson, from Scotland. During the first 18 years after the settlement, the people in the several Plantations were governed by Agents appointed by the Proprietors, or by magistrates chosen by themselves. In 1641, they became united to Massachusetts, and so continued until 1680, when New-Hampshire became a Royal Province; and, excepting an interregnum from 1689 to 1692, when the people again put themselves under the protection of Massachusetts, continued a provincial government until the Revolution. Massachusetts was made a Province in 1692, and the same Governor was over that and New-Hampshire, from 1699 till 1741, when a separate governor of New-Hampshire was appointed, and all connection with Massachusetts ceased.]

The Asylum is located on an elevation about half a mile south-westerly of the State House, in Concord, and is constructed and finished upon a plan highly creditable to the State. It is of excellent brick, upon a superstructure of granite, having a centre building 48 by 44 feet, 4 stories in height above the basement, and two wings, each 90 by 36 feet, 3 stories above the basement—the whole constituting a continuous and elegant pile 228 feet in length. The centre building is designed for the occupation of the Superintendent's family, and for dining rooms for the patients while the wings contain 120 rooms for the accommodation of that number of unfortunate insane. The basement, constructed externally of granite, is divided into numerous large and commodious apartments, affording the most ample and convenient accommodations for cookery and storage, and the whole edifice throughout is warmed from furnaces constructed in it. The roofs are well slated. About 120 acres of land have been purchased for the use of the Asylum, upon which a neat and commodious barn, 42 by 60 feet, with 18 feet posts, and a cellar under the whole, has been constructed. The amount expended to June 1843, for the purchase of land and the erection of buildings, was $30,777·15; for furniture, farming tools, stock and manure, $2,180·62. The institution has been in successful operation for more than a year. The number of patients September 1, 1843, was about 60. Cost of board to patients $2·25 per week.

COMMON SCHOOLS IN N. H

By the existing laws of New Hampshire, 100,000 dollars are annually assessed for the support of free schools, in addition to the annual distribution of about 10,000 dollars literary fund, and the sums raised by the several school districts for the building and repairing of school houses. Consequently these schools are very numerous, and their blessings almost universally participated. According to the report of the United States' Marshal, the number of schools in the State in June, 1840, was 2,127, with 83,032 scholars; while, of the whole population of the State over twenty years of age, there were only 942 who could not read and write.

The publisher of the Register made an effort to obtain statistics of common schools in New Hampshire, but without success. Circulars were sent to Post Masters and others in most of the towns in the State, but returns were so very imperfect that nothing valuable could be made out from them. The subject of Common School education is receiving that attention which its importance demands in Mass., N. Y, and several other States, and their example should be followed by New Hampshire. Some system of organization similar to that of Massachusetts should be adopted that new interest might be excited upon the subject. The object in obtaining statistics in relation to common schools was that some data might be had for future operations; but there is so little organization in the system in this State that the necessary information could not be obtained.

STATE EXPENDITURES, 1842.

The total amount of expenditures from June 1842, to June 1843, was $119,510·22; of which was paid travel and attendance of Council, Senate and House of Representatives $44,895·20; paid for Asylum for Insane $4,000; paid Commissioners to revise Laws $2,000; paid appropriations for blind, deaf and dumb $1,600; paid military appropriations $2,685·82; paid cash borrowed, $34,723·44; balance paid salaries and services of sundry officers.

POLITICAL AND MUNICIPAL.

The whole number of votes cast for Governor in New Hampshire, on the second Tuesday of March 1843, was 44,583; necessary to a choice, 22,292. Estimated as scattering, 33. Daniel Hoit, (Abol.) had 3,402; John H. White, (Cons.) 5,497; Anthony Colby, (Whig) 12,551; Henry Hubbard, (Dem.) 23,050. Hubbard's majority over all, 1,517.
